CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I email the Mayor back in Olean about who is working for his opponent's campaign, and he responds "feel free to come see me". I email George Borrello complaining about my 529 day car insurance lapse, he sends back some DMV legal information. Two public officials I have always personally known since the 2010s who I never needed anything from other than the joy of having known them.

However when I email John Sinatra, Katie's website is updated. And then it contributes to my emotions for the day. And then I have to "self legal immunize" myself with my usual "hacked devices/forged handwriting" rhetoric due to the circumstances. Let's not forget that Salamanca Planning Board Member Michael Crick had an order of protection AGAINST him in recent years. A website against me specifically updating the general public about emails sent to a federal court tells me that USA vs Luke Wenke has clearly defined this particular public office's time and resources in recent years. I'm sure I won't have to copy Michael Crick's court adversary's techniques against the public official who owns her place of residence in light of the recently revealed connection between your court's email and lukewenke.online.

Luke Wenke and John Sinatra 2025 feels like Luke Wenke and Mark Potwora 2019 from the Libertarian Party of New York. You don't get to act like it is your job specifically to block my path. And I have already mentally prepared for how to make sure I never have that again.

Families of judges should not face judges in their own country, nor should military veterans should be held in a prison system in their own country. My eyes sees modern sociology issues bordering on the brink of the literal definition of civil war, your eyes see "well I'm missing their competency paperwork so let me throw away another few months of their time over this specific paperwork concern and let's watch everyone fight again". Federal judges appear to just play Battleship with the Sentencing Guidelines and once everything gets too close for comfort it looks like it's time for things to shift gears.

Daniel Christmann from the 2019 Olean High School Libertarian Presidential Debate/2021 Capitol Riot is back in my every other day phone call social time. He told me this week about laws concerning emails to federal courts suddenly getting posted on the internet being some kind of special FOIA/FOIL clause. I think he could take the lukewenke.online situation with my emails to this particular court's email getting published on a website against me specifically to his little attorney entourage. Daniel Christmann knows Milo Yiannopolous and he was Brooklyn Libertarian Vice Chair. Daniel is against the lukewenke.online website.

Yes it turns out my social life is much more vibrant when I'm not being held month after month and sending letters to people from incarceration is typically a sign of a cry for help, not a sign of incoherent rambling. I am very happy we have a high school dropout in charge of NASA these days, and I a three semester student of JCC also feel a little bit more knowledgeable than many of our government's highest authorities. How tragically attacked I've been in recent years while at the same time feeling rather inspired by the installation of private sector gurus into our federal government. I want Linda McMahon/Tulsi Gabbard 2028.

JUDGE GIARDINI was Ross Perot 1992. Robert H Jackson US Courthouse Judges are accidental victims of Senior District Judge Richard Arcara's decades long reign producing somewhat of a Secret Society as JFK once talked about.

It is America's first Pluto Return. Pluto is in the same position around the sun it was in 1776. "Moonstruck" having been I believe a 1950s era criminal defense strategy. Pluto Returns being much more potent than Full Moons. Everyone has an astrology sign, and when my mind puts things together this is why I actually did put two and two together in my mind and did things like "well then John's relative Peter Gerace deserves a special deal too just like the Congressman who recently got pardoned".

So you can just accept that my eyes and likely your eyes see a different kind of a 2020s era crime situation where I, the oldest grandson of a former village judge, felt the need to just send an "I come in peace forever here on out" message this week, only to receive an emotional shock when it was found on Katie's website.

What appears to be my next step is paying people in Nathan Leaver's Ohio private security vicinity (my Freedom To Assemble rights with him having been irrationally infringed upon in 2023) to fingerprint my house, as I can't ever expect a 100% result of what I want done from anything publicly financed. I will then push a lawsuit against the North Carolina Libertarian Party's Gary Johnson 2016 Prostitution Rights Authority Lauren Ashley [REDACTED] of Hampstead NC and I will blame people in her vicinity of damaging my house in cooperation with their Minneapolis Hamas friends who love to hack innocent US citizens electronic devices to make CGI's of them at Hamas-backed protests in an effort to turn Americans against Americans and destabilize the 50 states the same way we once destabilized the Middle East prior to the Taliban's 2021 seizure of their native city of Kabul. Oh look, my North Carolina lawsuit will produce yet another ripple effect of heart chakra wavelengths and the reality of who destroyed my house during my elongated away time will be revealed.

So, speaking of "Americans being turned against each other", you can just accept that THIS particular oldest grandson of a former village judge; who they together went to Tea Party events in Cattaraugus County in the early 2010s, later on to face a sociologically paradoxical "families of judges facing judges" dynamic, you can just accept that my original email all the way up to this one is simply my "Hello Mr. Crossing Guard, I am looking both ways today" gesture because not once in my life did I ever ask for a criminal court situation. I accept federal level officials as human beings with emotions, and I would think that you deep down prefer criminal court defendants writing genuinely to you as opposed to the "I will do better next time Mr Judge" bullshit criminal defense lawyers ask their clients to write out and lay down on the conveyor belt of standard criminal court occurrences after asking them to rewrite everything so it sounds "normal" as Alexander Anzalone innocently requested to me in 2022.

So that is it. No I don't have a special kind of "internet antics". My human mind and emotions have responded to my circumstances I feel as though as anyone else's would have. I have replaced Doordash today with a different job, I have quite a to do list I feel obligated to do due to the plain and simple need to feel useful in this lifetime, and I am naturally going to get back on social media as at one point I would advertise piano tuning on social media. Also built up Libertarian affairs, kept in touch with people. I'm expected to stay off social media forever all because 5+ years ago Benjamin [REDACTED] was my personal concern for the week? No.

So the Homeland Security Long Distance Order of Protection program will come, as I am the one with the newfound legal issue I am determined to solve. What an exaggerated traffic infraction those 45 months were. You agree.

Let's see what the lukewenke.online website thinks about what I said here. Let's see if people will question is it really me on that social media profile or is it a CGI of me as a profile picture using AI to post outlandish things my adversaries assume I would say. Watch anything myself or those potentially artificially generated profiles post be the reason why everyone in the vicinity of my prior 45 month long situation can't help but find ways to make burner numbers, provoke my attention over fake profiles, etc. because they feel bad about never even having met me while watch me use Free Speech on the internet. My lawsuit against the North Carolina Libertarian Party's Gary Johnson 2016 Prostitution Legalities Expert Lauren Ashley [REDACTED] will highly likely be posted about online and it will make the culprit fess up as to who broke into my house so they can pay for the damages.

That is it. See you in the comments section of my upcoming high audience social media profile which will be much bigger than my Let's Bitch About Cuomo Facebook group from 2019 with 10,000+ members Katie was in as well. As well as George Borrello and David DiPietro. I will try to look for you all throughout the many many comments I expect in my upcoming social media posts.
