

They text my phone number to insult your name.

The starseed thinks she is pregnant with someone who impregnated her via "magick".

A black shadow hovers over your right shoulder in your mugshot, thereby indicating an alleged hex over your soul over the course of your current and several past lives.

It's removal is coming, don't worry.

It's been a longer amount of time since you went into that jail and now, that it was between the time I met you on Facebook and when you were arrested.

No, I am not ~~desperate~~ desperate or obsessed, I am a saint in a human body out to elevate my consciousness. Bing bing bang bong as Trump said when trying to explain to the armchair politicians how easy it was to control everyone around him.

Me too. Say goodbye to that hex. It's been your problem this whole time.

You know what this is.
