

Hi Ry Ry,

Your dad Brett [REDACTED] and I had a nice cordial texting relationship for the first two months of all this, but then you had superseding charges placed on you, I flipped out, I sent him a picture of me in latex, and so he blocked my number. So I'm just going to send love letters to you directly.

Our love for each other is forever documented on File 411 on Twitter. I love my Ry Ry. Me and Ry Ry will be getting married August 2021 and Lexy will be the maid of honor. When we Google search "Benjamin Ryan [REDACTED]" we get nonsense. When we Google search "Luke Wenke" we get fun things like Chuck E. Cheese memes and pddancing. It is only practical and logical for you to marry me legally and change your name to Ryan Semi-Automatic Wenke.

Innocent of all charges, I LOVE YOU!!
